Only In His Night Robes Husband

Ran Through the Storm to Save Children.

MAN ATTACKED BY INSANE WIFE AT NIGHT.

WOMAN SET THE HOUSE ON FIRE

And Was Fatally Burned While Her Feet Were Frozen—She Had Been Sick.

Grand Meadow, Minn., December 6—Stealthily hiding a large kitchen knife in the folds of her night dress, Mrs. Otis Finhart, wife of a farmer living two miles northwest of Grand Meadow retired to bed. In the middle of the night, the woman suddenly attacked her husband. She hacked his neck with vicious blows while he struggled in a frenzy of fear to overcome her. She clung to him with furious strength but his efforts were effectual in diverting the blows she aimed at him. Suddenly wrenching himself from her, he sprang from the bed, snatched up their two children and dashed out of the house into the snowstorm, attired only in his night clothes.

Stung by the cold and fearful for his little ones, he ran barefooted through the storm and snow to a neighbor's, about a quarter of a mile away. There he left the children and hastily donned garments hurriedly given him by the startled neighbor.

Refusing any attention for himself, but demanding instant care for his children he set out, the blood still running from the gashes on his neck and his feet and hands numb with the frost. When he came within sight of the house he saw it in a seething mass of flames. Mrs. Finhart, insanely mad, had set fire to the structure in several places and the flames had spread with furious speed.

Dashing into the fire Finhart sought to rescue the crazed woman. He could not penetrate far and was forced to retreat. The house was destroyed. Then he saw his wife on the road making her way, wailing and moaning pitifully, toward the house of Chris Nelson, about a mile and a half distant. Finhart ran after her and found that she was fearfully burned. She was docile now and was taken to the house where her children were. She will die. Besides being badly burned her feet were frozen. Ill health is said to be the cause of her mental collapse.

The Finharts are well to do and respected and the tragedy has shocked the community beyond measure.

STRIKE

Commission Adjourns Till Monday.

Father Curran on the Stand This Morning.

Scranton, Dec. 6—Before the strike commission which adjourned today at 1 o'clock till Monday, Father Curran testified where men had gone on a strike for a just cause, that any man who took his place did injury to the people of the community. How he came to this opinion Father Curran did not say. Counsel Reynolds asked the witness how far a striker might go to prevent a man from taking his place and Father Curran said a man had a right to use moral suasion, but nothing further than that.

After the settlement the coal roads will absorb all the independent companies, the aggregate value of which is one hundred and forty-five millions.

WASHED

Overboard and Back to Deck—Thrill- ing Experience of Seamen in Stormy Trip.

New York, Dec. 6—The sea played mad pranks with the White Star liner Teutonic, which came into port yesterday, 24 hours late, after one of the stormiest voyages Captain McKinstry ever had. Albert Palmer, a seaman, was washed overboard, then washed back again, and for a third time picked up by a wave and thrown into one of the suspended life boats.

Almost as soon as the cry, "Man overboard!" was raised and before any of the crew could put out a hand to lower a boat or throw a line to Palmer a wave over the port side caught Palmer and landed him on the deck with a thud that was at first thought to have killed him.

He scrambled to his feet, however, only to be picked up again by a starboard wave and thrown into one of the lifeboats on the port davits. Beyond some bruises, Palmer was not injured. Captain McKinstry kept to the bridge throughout the trip with but slight intermissions, and all of the passengers, of whom there were 166 in the cabins and 264 in the steerage, were kept below.

BOUGHT POISON

THAT KILLED HER CHILDREN THEN KILLED HERSELF

After She Was Arrested for the Crime of Murder—She Wanted the In- surance Money.

Dexter, Me., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Hattie L. Whitten who hanged herself while under arrest for the poisoning of her two children to obtain the insurance on their lives bought nine and a half pounds of poison from Druggist George E. Brewster just before the death of her children.

Mrs. Whitten's first purchase was on September 13 when she bought two ounces of laudanum explaining that it was to kill rats. On November 20 she bought five grains of strychnine to cure corns; on November 22 half an ounce of laudanum and on November 24 an ounce of arsenic and a small bottle of castor oil.

When she made this last purchase Mrs. Whitten explained to the druggist that she made a mistake on November 20 when she got strychnine as she wanted arsenic.

Dr. Murphy the attending physician, believes the oil was used with the poison to prevent a successful use of the stomach pump.

Fannie Whitten the 11 year old child was taken with convulsions on September 19 and died within a few hours. Jennie, the second child, was taken ill on November 24, and died three days later. Fannie died the day after the first purchase of arsenic and Jennie was taken ill the day of the second purchase of the same poison.

CONGRESS

What Has Been Accomplished this Week—Next Week's Program is Announced.

Washington, Dec. 6.—The only noteworthy accomplishment of the first week's session of Congress in the House was the passage of the bill appropriating $50,000 to defray the expenses of the coal commission. The important work in committee was the agreement in the judiciary committee to accept the Littlefield publicity bill of last year as a basis of consideration for the anti-trust legislation to be recommended for consideration to the House and the beginning of the hearings before the committee on interstate and foreign commerce of the bill to create a department of commerce.

Next week the judiciary committee expects to have its anti-trust bill in readiness to report.

Senator Quay, with a few Republican colleagues and all the Democrats, wants the original bill admitting all three territories to be adopted. He declares that he has a majority of the Senate with him. The vote will be a very close one with a good chance for the three territories proposition to win. It is not expected that the vote will be reached next week.

WAR

Is Waged On The Tobacco Trust

Will Be Carried to the Bitter End

RETAIL TOBACCO MEN MEET THE PRICES

SET ON TRUST MADE CIGARS

Dealers in Large Cities Are Organ- izing and a Convention May Soon be Held.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 6.—Leaf tobacco men, independent cigar manufacturers and retail dealers in all parts of the United States are uniting to wage war upon the Tobacco Trust. The leaf tobacco men and independent cigar manufacturers working with the jobbers have succeeded in organizing the retail dealers in 20 cities, and through the retailers it is hoped to interest the consumer. In New York the anti-trust stores are selling a certain five cent cigar at three and a half cents each, thus breaking the price on the trust's best five-cent product. In Philadelphia the dealers are hiding another trust-made cigar under their counters and supply it only upon specific request.

In every city and town where the agents employed to fight the trust have obtained a foothold some special brand of trust goods has been marked for the knife.

It is positively known that the expenses of this costly warfare are borne by the leaf tobacco men and independent dealers, who have enlisted the services of S. W. Roth, who is traveling over the country to organize the retailers.

Mr. Roth in this city outlined the plan and scope of the now progressing national movement and anticipated a national convention of cigar dealers.

Over 600 reputable tobaccoists in this city have already joined the retail cigar and Tobacco Dealers' Association, and it is quite certain that a very large percentage of all the others will join within the next few weeks. Permanent headquarters have been established and a score of reputable cigar merchants have been elected to the various offices of the organization.

Mr. Roth, in describing the encroachments of the American Tobacco Company upon the retail trade through the United States Company, said:

"The Tobacco Trust crowded out the small manufacturer first; then it coerced the planters and jobbers, and finally reached out to crush the retailers through the United States Company, which is the branch of the American Cigar company that proposes to operate retail cigar stores throughout the world, selling the output of the trust direct to the consumers, thus putting both the jobber and retailer out of business.

"In Chicago where the trust is selling famous brands of ten-cent cigars for 5 cents, and popular brands of straight five-cent cigars two for a nickel, it finds its prices met by the organized retailers."

"The same system is to be adopted all over the country with a view to have all of the trust-made brands thoroughly identified as such, and all independent made cigars advertised so as to attract the trade of all consumers who are opposed to trusts on principle. The best five-cent cigars made in America are manufactured in the independent factories of Philadelphia, and popular brands made by the trust are manufactured in a dozen different factories at the same time and of different grades of tobacco, so that a man who buys one in Philadelphia gets a very different grade of cigar from that sold under the same name in New York or Chicago.

"I am urging retailers all over the country not to push the sales of goods made by the trust, and not to credit stories circulated by the hired agents

WEAKLING, COWARD AND VICTOR

Ours is not the creed of the weakling or the coward; ours is the possession of hope and of triumphant endeavor.—President's message.

What is the real creed of the President who as a result of jealousy, prejudice or intrigue publicly charged the American victor of the greatest of all sea fights with timidity and incapacity?

Who comes the nearest to filling the bill—Schley in the presence of the Spanish fleet or Roosevelt in the presence of the tariff trusts and combines?—Chicago Chronicle.

No better evidence of Anglo-American approach could be desired than the fact that the metropolitan Republican newspapers print with gratification and approval the commendatory comments of the British press upon Mr. Roosevelt's message to Congress. It will be remembered that during Mr. Cleveland's administration any approval of a presidential message by the London newspapers would have excited these Republican journals to caustic comment upon subservient to perfidious Albion, with incidental allusions to the Cobden club and British gold. We progress.

When strenuously gets its eyes fixed upon a second term the result is a cautious and conservative trend of thought eminently soothing to those "large interests" which sizzle pleasantly when the chairman of the national committee makes the rounds with the contribution box.

Many a statesman in the present Congress expects to make himself famous by his bill to suppress the trusts. No expectation, however, exists that any of said bills will be even seriously considered. Buncombe is all that the statesmen anticipate.

Fancy suspenders—put up one pair in a box—just the thing for him for Xmas at ROE EMERSON'S.

THE W. C. T. U.

Roll call was responded to with Scriptural quotations.

The Superintendent of Literature reported that she had placed 728 pages of reading matter and 218 tracts in the B. & O. depot and at the B. & O. club room; that jail and city prison meetings were held every Sunday afternoon, and railroad meetings every Tuesday at the noon hour; that practical work has been in the rescue department, and that a number of articles and some money had been brought in for the temperance hospital, and it is the desire of the Superintendent that any who may wish to contribute will do so on next Tuesday. Nine members were received in the usual impressive manner. The remainder will be received on next Tuesday evening.

Owing to the lack of time discussion on "Evils of Cigarette Smoking" will be given at the next meeting.

Blood Wine Cures Rheumatism

Probably no medicine nor any doctor ever cured as many people of rheumatism as has "Blood Wine." Rheumatism and neuralgia in the various forms—muscular, articular, chronic, periodical, lingering, in fact, every kind has been wiped out by "Blood Wine," and no trace of it left.

If you are a rheumatic sufferer, try and picture the pain that those poor people went through, and the happiness that they felt at being rid of the disease.

From E. W. Appleton, of Bath, Me.: "Last June I became afflicted with a pain in my right limb. It extended from the hip to the ankle. My physician called it rheumatism. It pained me terribly, in fact I could scarcely endure it. After taking various remedies being referred by my physician I was told to take 'Blood Wine.' I took just three bottles; that was sufficient to thoroughly cure me. It is the greatest relief I ever saw."

Such a strong testimonial ought to carry weight, and convince the most skeptical. Here is another case, also in the limbs. Mr. A. N. Couler, of New Bedford, Mass.:

"I suffered for some time with neuralgia in my limbs. The doctors told me it was due to the state of my blood, and I was unable to find a cure until I took 'Blood Wine.' It cured me."

The New England States are terrible States for rheumatism. Probably on account of the moisture. People have it badly, and are very hard to cure. Read this one from James Robinson, of 314 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, Me.:

"Rheumatism has been an old disease with me. I had it for years. At times it almost drove me to despair. Like most people I tried about everything without relief. When your 'Blood Wine' came out I didn't take much notice of it because I had been disappointed so often. Finally I heard so much about it that I decided to try it. Well, I was more than surprised at the result. I could hardly believe that I was cured, but I am, and I owe it solely to 'Blood Wine.' I pronounce it a wonderful medicine."

In Terra Haute, Ind., at 202 South Eighth Street, lives Mr. Dan Meisel, an engineer, who is out in all kinds of weather. This is what he says:

"For some years I was troubled with rheumatism, also a lot of disturbance with my kidneys, which at times almost made me unable to work. Hearing of a few cases where 'Blood Wine' had been used with such good success I got a bottle at Roe's Drug Store and what it did for me was plenty. Had it had a sign of my old trouble whatever. I used six bottles and now weigh 236 pounds."

Sold at City Drug store.

An Effective Evening Waist.

Ivory white taffeta is used for this waist with front laid in alternate tuck clusters and stripes of openwork fibre braids, in drop-shoulder style. The fanciful decorations of braid are varied with medallions of chiffon. The back is in tucked effect, and the narrow belt is of silk.

The new surt-waists are veritable triumphs of the modiste's skill and cunning. Embroidery occupies an important place among the season's decorations, and blouses of white flannel or cashmere are lavishly elaborated in black and white Corticelli silk in a pattern of bow knots and fancy stitches. A tucked yoke that was in pointed outline at the center of the front was the characteristic feature of the shaping of a waist of this order, that was made to accompany a Norfolk suit.

AT SWISHERS'

DEMAND FOR GOODS IS GREATER THAN SUPPLY.

Reporter Goes Through the Big Factory to See How the Cigar Business is Conducted.

Room and plenty of work for many more employees than can be secured in Newark, is the situation that the cigar manufacturing firm of Swisher Bros. finds itself facing at the present time.

Swisher Brothers, consisting of Messrs. Harry Swisher and John M. Swisher have developed through their own exertions and built up an enormous business in the manufacture of cigars and stogies, until now they have orders ahead to keep the present force employed in Newark and other places busy for a year to come.

For some time there has been a Swisher Bros. factory in Somerset and 50 days ago another big plant employing 125 girls was started and is running day and night in Circleville. These with the big Newark factory, furnish immense facilities but they are totally inadequate to supply the tremendous demand for the Swisher Bros. goods.

Another big factory is to be started in Chillicothe next week.

A reporter called at the large West Main street factory Friday afternoon, and was courteously treated by Messrs. Harry and John Swisher, the latter escorting the news-writer through the place, explaining the situation that confronts the firm.

On the second floor over one-half the floor space is taken up with work benches where nearly 200 girls sit side by side at work. The place is as busy as a hive, but as quiet as a country Sunday school. While here hardly a girl took her eyes from her work to gaze at the stranger in the room. These girls were making cigars and earning $7, $8, $9, up to $12 per week, according to the number made. Mr. George Hentze is foreman of this department, and it is conducted in a thoroughly capable manner. Everything is scrupulously neat and clean about the room, and the employees have a well heated, well ventilated thoroughly enjoyable place to work.

Back of this room on the same floor 18 girls are making cigars by machine, each girl operating a machine. It is light, easy work for which the average weekly wage is about $8.50 or $9. Here also neatness and quick work predominates, and again hardly an eye was lifted except in answer to questions, asked by the reporter, which received a polite and courteous response. One girl was asked how long she had worked in the factory, the average sum earned and how she liked the work.

"I have worked here for nine years, and for most of that time have earned an average of $7 per week. I am and have been drawing $9 and $10 for a long time, and the work is easy, cleanly and pleasant. I would not quit for anything, as I am making a independent and honest living in a clean, respectable place."

Several were asked the same questions and answered practically in the same vein.

On the third floor the packers and sorters work in the front room while in a smaller rear room younger girls and boys strip the tobacco. These are paid by the piece and make good wages. Here also is a machine which grinds the tobacco and carries it to a large bin, which was half full Friday afternoon, material enough for 250,000 cigars.

Now the problem is to get more girls, to do a clean respectable work at good wages. Girls are wanted from 14 years of age up, and after a month they can easily earn $3 per week. This wage will increase with proficiency until after a year or more the girl will be earning from $7 a week up.

There is no reason why any girl should not apply for and secure work from Swisher Bros., who wants to earn a good independent living. These girls are under rigid rules and the best influences possible while in the factory, and this has been and will be further extended to their outside behavior. From now on any girl in Swisher Bros. employ who in any way, upon the street or any other place, acts in such a manner as to bring upon herself or them reproach or any breath of scandal, will be summarily dismissed from their employ. A girl to secure work must have the best of references as to her character and disposition. This rule is never varied from.

Sozodont TOOTH POWDER

No Waste No Spilling No Acid No Grit
BIG BOX
Containing New Can with Patent Top 25c
HALL & RUCKEL, New York

Plenty of stenographers and typewriters can be secured at longer hours and less pay than a girl can be gotten to work in the factory. Why does this condition exist? It is undoubtedly through ignorance. A mother or guardian of any girl can at any time visit the factory and see for herself just how the business is conducted, and we feel sure that her prejudices will be dispelled. There is absolutely no suggestion of drudgery or the sweatshop methods. Ask any girl employed there and she will tell you she is happy, contented and making a good living.

The scarcity of the supply of girls to work at a business, which will teach them a trade, and furnish them a good living while learning it, has made it necessary for Swisher Bros. to go out of Newark and build a factory when every dollar of the $1,000 per week which is paid in wages might be earned in Newark by 100 Newark girls, who would spend it in Newark, among the business men.

This condition exists when there are plenty of idle girls in the city.

It is to be hoped that many of the girls of the city will look at the matter sensibly and apply for and secure a clean, honorable, and lucrative position.

CONFERENCE

Of Leading Ohio Democrats to be Held Soon at Columbus—Hormany Gathering.

There are no end of rumors coming from all parts of the state, of projected conferences of prominent Democrats representing all sections and shades of opinion. The idea is to "get together." While all Democrats are apparently in favor of that object, the various plans proposed have met with as many receptions. The most definite project seems to be that of General Charles M. Anderson of Greenville, who has been chairman of the State Committee, and for a long time prior to 1896 was otherwise active in Ohio Democratic politics. General Anderson has written a number of letters to personal and political friends throughout the state, advocating a meeting of Democrats in this city on January 8, "Jackson's Day." It is understood that the replies received have been for the most part favorable, but that some objection has been raised against the proposed date, on the ground that it will interfere with many Jackson Day celebrations in the various counties. If the date suggested is not determined upon, it is practically settled that another in the near future will be selected, and that the meeting will materialize.

General Anderson insists that he is for harmony only, and is not a candidate for any office. He promises also not to become one. General Anderson is joined in his desire for a harmony meeting by a large number of Democrats throughout the State. It is said that men like Walter Ritchie, A. D. Marsh of Celina, former speaker, State Chairman H. C. Garber of the State Executive committee, and W. J. Frey of the State Central committee, Hon. Allen Andrews of Hamilton, Judge George B. Okey of Columbus, John A. McMahon, and John M. Spriggs of Dayton, Henry Flesch of Piqua, and others, many of whom at least have not been active in politics for years now feel that they have been remiss to their party and that they ought to get into the harness.

It is said that Chairman Frey also contemplates calling a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, invitations to which will be extended to many prominent Democrats with the same object in view as that held by General Anderson and his friends. It is probable however, that one of these plans will have to give way to the other. At any rate there will be "something doing" in Democratic circles in the state in the near future.

CHANGE OF CLIMATE

Not Necessary in Order to Cure Catarrh.

The popular idea that the only cure for chronic catarrh is a change of climate, is a mistake because catarrh is found in all climates in all sections of the country; and even if a change of climate should benefit for a time the catarrh will certainly return.

Catarrh may be readily cured in any climate, but the only way to do it is to destroy or remove from the system the catarrhal germs which cause all the mischief.

The treatment by inhalers, sprays, powders and washes has been proven almost useless in making a permanent cure, as they do not reach the seat of disease, which is in the blood and can be reached only by an internal remedy which acts through the stomach upon the blood and system generally.

A new discovery which is meeting with remarkable success in curing catarrh of the head, throat and bronchial tubes, is sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets which are pleasant and harmless to take owe their efficiency to the active medicinal principles of Blood Root, Red Gum and a new specific called Guaiacol, which together with valuable antiseptics are combined in convenient palatable tablet form and as valuable for children as for adults.

Mr. A. R. Fernbank of Columbus, O., says: "I suffered so many winters from Catarrh that I took it as a matter of course and that nothing would cure it except a change of climate, which my business affairs would not permit me to take."

My nostrils were almost always clogged up; I had to breathe through the mouth, causing inflammation, irritated throat. The thought of eating breakfast often nauseated me and the catarrh gradually getting into my stomach took away my appetite and digestion.

My druggist advised me to try a box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because he said he had so many customers who had been cured of Catarrh by the use of these tablets, that he felt he could honestly recommend them. I took his advice and used several boxes with results that surprised and delighted me.

I always keep a box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in the house and the whole family use them freely on the first appearance of a cough or cold in the head.

With our children we think there is nothing so safe and reliable as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets to ward off croup and colds and with older people I have known of cases where the hearing had been seriously impaired by chronic catarrh cured entirely by this new remedy.

SCHOOL BOARD

THE NEW CODE BILL PUTS IT IN A QUEER POSITION.

Big Blunder in the New Law—Ways of Remedying the Trouble Are Suggested.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

A queer question has been raised with regard to the election of members of the board of education. The matter of the election of members of the board of education is left out of the municipal code law as it passed the legislature at the recent extraordinary session. There is only one provision in the law referring to the election of members of board of education throughout the state, and this provision is so vague that it is a question as to how boards of education shall be organized next spring.

The attorney general's department, working in connection with the state school commissioner has tried to get this matter fixed up in such a way that the boards of education will be elected next spring in a legal way, but they find that there is no provision which will cover the situation.

The attorney general and the state school commissioner have been looking over the situation and they find that there is no provision in the law for the election of members of the board of education. They find also that they will have to have a special court, to provide for the organization of school boards until the legislature is in session again, and can pass a law which will reorganize the school boards of the state.

Three ways have been suggested of getting around the unconstitutional feature of the organization of school boards throughout the state. These are:

1. The principle shall be held that the school boards are de facto school boards, and that the members shall hold on for one year from next May, and then members of the school boards shall be elected in accordance with laws that will be enacted by the next general assembly.
2. There shall be hold-over members of the school boards. For instance in Columbus, these members of the board representing wards even numbered shall stay in office and the members in odd wards shall be elected. It is claimed that in regard to this there will be a great injustice done to different sections of the city, on account of the fact that certain districts will stand for a number of members of the board, and that members of the board elected in certain wards will represent districts that are not at all in sympathy with the people who really elected the members.
3. The third manner is to have an election in all of the twelve wards of Columbus next spring.

Arrangements have been made to have a suit brought in the supreme court, which will remit in an order from the supreme court to have an election in each ward as created under the new code. This will mean that all the present members of the board of education in Columbus will be retired, and that there will be an election all the way around.

The attorney general and the school commissioner are now looking over the laws with a view of devising

WHIST CLUB

Delightfully Entertained Friday Evening at The Home of Miss Woodbridge, First Street.

The Compass Whist Club met Friday night with Miss Emma Woodbridge at her home on First street, and an interesting evening's play resulted.

In the distribution of cards for the evening, the north and south pairs had the strong hands, while few of those held by the east and west pairs were of average strength. This accidental distribution however, did not affect the comparative scores, as the comparisons were made between pairs playing the same direction. The pairs for the evening were as follows:

East and West—Mr. Howard Jones and Mrs. C. W. Miller; Mr. Ed C. Miller and Miss Lizzie Smucker; Mr. Joe Miller and Miss Louise Speer.

North and South—Mr. Fred Mosteller and Miss Ethel Pitser. Mrs. Chas. W. Miller and Miss Emma Woodbridge. Dr. R. W. DeCrow and Miss Lillian Latimer.

Mr. Ed C. Miller and Miss Smucker were substitutes for Mr. George H. sey and Miss Josephine Veach, while Dr. DeCrow and Miss Latimer played in place of Mr. Otto Meyer and Miss Bess Rhoads.

The average for the North and South pairs was 130, East and West, 104, and the following scores were made:

C. W. Miller and Miss Woodbridge even; Mr. Mosteller and Miss Pitser plus 6; Dr. DeCrow and Miss Latimer minus 6; Mr. Joe Miller and Miss Speer, minus 4; Mr. Jones and Mrs. Miller, plus 2; Mr. Ed Miller and Miss Smucker, plus 2.

A fine supper was served by the hostess and all present passed a most pleasant evening.

AMUSEMENTS.

With each succeeding year Manager Chas. H. Yale evolves a new edition for his "Everlasting Devil's Auction," each one of which surpasses its predecessor with beauties of its ensemble, scenic grandeur and marvelous ballets. The production for this, the twenty-first continuous year of success, will be far and away ahead of former presentations of this wonderful play. New ballets, new scenery, music and specialties should make this season's production of Chas. H. Yale's Everlasting, always to be remembered, never forgotten, never excelled, always welcome "Devil's Auction" a memorable one. At the Auditorium tonight.

DAN COLLYER IN "KING DODO."

Dan Collyer, who plays the role of King Dodo in the opera of that name is not the famous orator and statesman from Kentucky, but a comedian who has had his early training with the Master Edward Harrington, at the Harrigan Theatre, (now called the Garrick), 35th street and Broadway. His training has been most complete, and in all the old comedies by Harrigan he never failed to win the approval of the critics and public of those successful seasons. Collyer then a young man just out of his teens, played parts that older men did not dare to play. He will be seen here on next Friday night, December 12 as the "Jolly Old Potentate" in King Dodo, and will drive away a case of blues before he is on the scene five minutes. The public should not miss seeing Dan Collyer in his funny part.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Ladies' Home and Foreign Missionary Society met with Mrs. Miller, on Indiana street, Friday afternoon. Every number on the program was well rendered. Mrs. Ickes read an interesting paper on "The Crusades or Holy Wars." Mrs. Fulton's paper on "Wickliff in England," showed a careful preparation. A poem, "The Best We Have," was read by Miss Ball in a manner to bring out the pathos and appeal. Mrs. Howey's paper on "Mission News from Korea" closed the afternoon's program, which was followed by refreshments and a Social time.

MRS. ALICE HOWEY, Sec'y.

MISS MAY MARKELL, A Society Belle of London, Canada.

MISS MAY MARKELL of London, Ontario, Canada, is a beautiful girl who knows what suffering is and Wine of Cardui has brought her back to health. She is one of the social favorites of her home and her recovery to health has permitted her to enjoy the company of her many friends instead of lying on a bed of sickness and suffering. For the health she now enjoys she gives credit to Wine of Cardui. She writes:

"I have found Wine of Cardui an excellent remedy for female trouble. I suffered for three years with terrible bearing-down pains at the menstrual period. I could hardly stand on my feet and was never real well. Wine of Cardui was the only medicine that I could depend on to do me any good, as I tried several with no success. Wine of Cardui cured me and I have now enjoyed perfect health for two years, and give you all the credit for I know you deserve it."

For a young girl Wine of Cardui is the best remedy to guide her through womanhood by starting the menstrual flow in a healthy and natural manner. Menstruation started right is very easy to keep regular through the years of mature womanhood. Then the "change of life" need not be feared. Thus Wine of Cardui is woman's best relief from youth to old age. A million women have secured blessed relief from their sufferings by taking this treatment. It relieves menstrual troubles in an incredibly short time. In a simple case of deranged menses Wine of Cardui never fails. To relieve disordered menses is to remove the cause of other female troubles. Any physician will tell you that to remove the cause of a disease renders the cure easy, in fact seldom fails to complete the cure. If you would have the same relief which Miss Markell secured try Wine of Cardui. You can take it without an examination and without any publicity whatever. You can take it in the privacy of your home and secure just as much benefit as if a doctor had prescribed it for you. Thousands of women are feeling the vigor of returning health by taking Wine of Cardui.

SLEEPING CARS

TO BE USED BY INTERURBAN
ELECTRIC LINES.Appleyard Officials Promise Sleeping Car Service Out of Columbus in Near Future.

Columbus, Dec. 6.—The officials of the Appleyard system of interurban lines have promised, before many days to establish a sleeping car service on the roads out of Columbus, which will equal, if not surpass, that of the steam roads. This announcement, of course, means that the Appleyard syndicate hopes soon to get into Cincinnati, and also hopes soon to complete its lines over the state so that through service will be established to and from all the important cities of the state, namely, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo and Co.

The plans for the new sleeping cars are now being drawn, according to reports from Cincinnati. The cars are to be 72 feet long, the length of the average Pullman, and will weigh 30 tons, their cost being estimated at $25,000 each. They will be geared up to an average speed of about 45 miles an hour.

Incidentally, the report comes from Cincinnati, where Mr. Appleyard has an office, to the effect that he, as well as the head of the Mandelbaum syndicate, are negotiating for the purchase of the Toledo, Bowling Green & Southern road. If the Appleyard people get hold of the road the position of that syndicate will be materially strengthened in the northern part of the state. He will then be in a position to operate two lines the entire length of the state, one from Cincinnati to Toledo, by way of Springfield, and the other from Cincinnati to Cleveland, by way of this city.

Columbus will also have connection with Toledo by way of Springfield.

Dr. J. R. Brooke Dead.

Dr. Brooke who has lived in Nebraska for forty years, formerly conducted a general store at Pataskala, this county. At one time he lived at Nashport. Burial will take place at Salem Sunday.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. PATASKALA

Soldier Named Anderson Was Robbed of $45 Pension Money in Columbus on Thursday.

Columbus, Dec. 6.—J. Anderson, an old soldier, whose home is in Pataskala, got very little benefit out of his pension money Thursday, as the police are now looking for an individual of whom they have a description, who robbed him of $45.

After getting his pension Thursday Anderson began drinking, and it is presumed he fell in with one of the sharks about town who lay for the old soldiers about pension time. Anderson admits that he had been drinking somewhere on Fourth street, and it is thought he was doped by the man who robbed him. When he came to, he could not find his money.

He was able to furnish a good description of the man who was with him, to the police, but he does not know the name.

NASAL CATARRH CURED

Pe-ru-na Cures a Case of Five Years' Standing.

Mr. Rudolph M. Patterson, Chicago, Ill.

Hon. Rudolph M. Patterson, a well-known lawyer, of Chicago, Ill., writes the following letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., at Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen—"I have been a sufferer from nasal catarrh for the past five years, and at the earnest solicitation of a friend I tried Peruna and am glad to say it has afforded a complete cure. It is with pleasure I recommend it to others."—RUDOLPH M. PATTERSON.

Mrs. J. C. Garrett, of 38 West 117th street, New York City, writes:

"I can honestly recommend Peruna as a great catarrh remedy. It heals and heals quickly and permanently."

"This is simply the whole story in a word. I have for years suffered with catarrh, aggravated when I took cold and Peruna cured me. It is indeed a great medicine, and worthy the highest praise, for it is reliable and will never disappoint you."—Mrs. J. C. Garrett.

There are two things that the whole medical profession agree about concerning catarrh. The first is that catarrh is the most prevalent and omnipresent disease to which the people in the United States are subject. All classes of people have it. Those who stay indoors much and those who go outdoors much. Working classes have it and sedentary classes have it.

The doctor finds catarrh to be his constant and ever-present foe. It complicates nearly every disease he is called upon to treat.

The second thing about catarrh on which all doctors agree, is that it is difficult to cure it. Local remedies may give relief but they fail to cure permanently. Sprays or snuffs amount to little or nothing except to give temporary relief.

Catarrh is frequently located in internal organs which cannot be reached by any sort of local treatment. All this is known by every physician.

To devise some systemic internal remedy which would reach catarrh at its source, to eradicate it permanently from the system—this has been the desire of the medical profession for a long time. Forty years ago Dr. Hartman confronted this problem. He believed then that he had solved it. He still believes he has solved it. He cures thousands of people annually. During all these years Peruna has been the remedy upon which he has relied.

It was at first a private prescription, afterwards manufactured expressly for him in large quantities. This remedy, Peruna, is now to be found in every drug-store and nearly every home in the land. It is the only reliable internal remedy ever devised to cure any case of catarrh, however long the case may have been standing.

Mr. Camillus Senne, 257 West 129th street, New York, writes:

"I have fully recovered from my catarrhal troubles. I suffered for three years with catarrh of the head, nose and throat. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief, but at last I have been cured by the wonderful remedy called Peruna."

"I read of Peruna in your almanac, and wrote you for advice, which I followed. After taking one and one-half bottles of Peruna I am entirely cured, and can recommend Peruna to anyone as the best and surest remedy for any catarrhal troubles."—Camillus Senne.

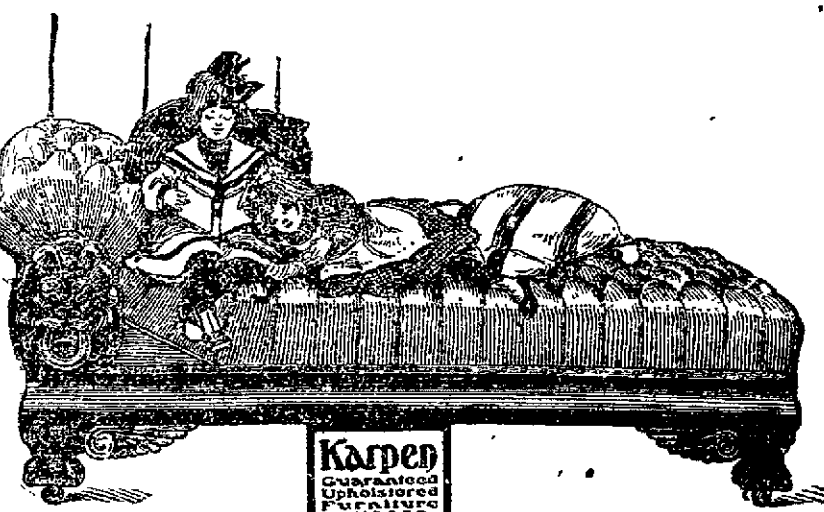

A course of Peruna never fails to bring relief. There is no other remedy like Peruna. Its cures are prompt and permanent.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Modern Woodmen.

Cedar Camp No. 4727 held a very interesting meeting in Red Men's hall Wednesday night, December 3, with 148 members present at which time seven candidates were initiated and three received by card making a total of 764 members in absolute good standing in this camp, thereby making it the largest membership of any society in the city, and making it the largest camp of Modern Woodmen in the state of Ohio. It is now taking the place so long held by Buckeye Camp of Zanesville.

Almost all old officers were elected to succeed themselves and there were no heated contests of any kind. The membership feel proud of their officers and team, who have been so largely instrumental in placing this camp on the top round of the ladder in the state. The following officers were elected:

V. C., C. B. Young. W. A., R. R. Jones. Clerk, E. W. Murphy. Escort, J. V. Scott. Secretary, Charles Fleming. Watchman, T. W. Tabler. Banker, H. O. Crawford. Manager, S. W. Haight. P. K., Clay Seymour. Usher, Captain J. H. Smith. Organist, O. D. Irwin. Clerk E. W. Murphy made a grand

Newark is the home of State Deputy Sherburne and District Deputy Brandriff and they both feel justly proud of their home camp and of the able assistance given them in making this the banner camp of this state, in which there are over 20,000 members. Next Wednesday night December 10, Cedar Camp will hold a Yankee lunch in connection with the adoption ceremonies at which time Dr. O'Hara will furnish a barrel of sweet cider which he promised to the camp when it had become the largest camp in the state. Other neighbors will furnish the ginger cake. On December 17th another class of candidates will be initiated and there will be something doing every meeting night until warm weather. All members are invited to come and help celebrate.

Masonic.

The most notable event perhaps in Newark Masonic circles this year was the joint installation of officers from Newark and Acme Lodges F & A M, which took place in Masonic hall on West Main street, on Friday evening. The interesting event called out a large gathering of members of both lodges to the number of over one hundred, together with a number of Masons from surrounding lodges. The imposing ceremonies of inducting the newly elected officers of both lodges into their offices for the ensuing year was performed by Mr. L. P. Schaus, Grand Junior Warden of the State of Ohio, assisted by Past Grand Master William M. Cunningham and Mr. Henry Siegel as Grand Herald. It is needless to say that the ceremony was performed in a very beautiful and impressive manner, and was witnessed with the greatest interest by the large throng of Masons who were present. In the absence of Worshipful Master A. A. Stasel, who was confined to his home with sickness, Senior Warden Dr. G. H. Woods filled his place very acceptably and presided as Master during the evening. The following is a list of the officers of Newark Lodge, all of whom were installed with the exception of Worshipful Master, A. A. Stasel:

W. M., A. A. Stasel. S. W., G. H. Wood. J. W., John H. Chilcote. Secretary, A. P. Taylor. Treasurer, D. C. Winegarner. Chaplain, T. M. Jones. S. D., James Thurston. J. D., Frank Place. Stewards, W. THE RAILWAYS

PENSIONS GIVEN SOUTHERN PACIFIC EMPLOYEES.

San Francisco, Dec. 6.—President Harriman of the Southern Pacific railroad company, has inaugurated a system for pensioning employees who have grown old in the service of the company, and a circular has been issued outlining the plan. In general the plan is similar to the system of the Pennsylvania, Illinois Central and the Chicago and Northwestern roads. Employees who have attained the age of 70 years and who have been in the service twenty years or more, are to receive pensions on the basis of one per cent per annum of the average salary received for ten years previous to pensioning for each year of service. Thus an employee whose pay has averaged $1,000 a year for ten years prior to retirement and who had been in the service of the company for thirty years would receive a pension equal to thirty per cent of $1,000 or $300 per year.

Between the ages of 65 and 70 years employees incapacitated from further work may be retired by a pension board, provided that they shall have been in the service twenty years or more.

The employees make no further contributions to the fund, the pensions being paid by the company in full and without any condition, the employees being at liberty to engage in other business after being pensioned, should they see fit.

THIS IS TRUE.

The wise outlay of money is in a permanent home. There the family comes together daily after the stress and storm of life as to a refuge. The possession of a home, however humble, gives one a sense of permanency, of vested rights; awakens public spirit and patriotism and arouses emulation. It is a foundation on which to build, a point from which to advance. Every flower enhances the value of the home and endears it to the heart and memory, hallowed by a tender association, endeared by recollection.

CRIME'S NEW CLASS.

Pinkerton Says "Yegmen" Have Succeeded Professional Burglars.

"The day of the professional burglar is past. His successor, the 'yegman,' has killed him off and buried him. This revolution in crime is due to the use of nitroglycerin."

William A. Pinkerton, who returned to Chicago recently after a two months' absence in the far west, made that statement as a preface to a discussion of the large number of bank and train robberies that have been committed in the last few months, says the New York Times.

"Practically all the recent jobs have been the work of these 'yegmen,'" he continued. "In the last year or two 200 of them have been sent to the penitentiaries, but recruits come to the front as fast as old hands are put out of the way. The men arrested charged with the robbery of the bank in Gardner, Ill., are of this new class, and those arrested in Wisconsin on a bank case belong in the same category. The one robber shot in the attempted hold-up of the Burlington train at Council Bluffs two years ago was a notorious 'yegman,' and I have no doubt his accomplices belonged to the same school.

"The 'yegmen' are evolutions from the tramps. They are 'postgraduate hoboes.' They travel in bands of four to six, camp in the woods in the outskirts of small towns, often are well armed, rob a safe and ride out of the district on the bumpers of freight cars or in any way that comes most handy. And, first of all, they know how to use nitroglycerin. They are elusive as fens, and when one is caught it is often difficult to make out a case against him.

"One 'yegman' who is familiar with the explosive is joined by, perhaps, four others, who assist and watch while he works. Each observes how the nitroglycerin is used and goes from the job ready to undertake one on his own account and so becomes a new leader and a new teacher. The information possessed by the first man is imparted in a few months to scores of others. If the hands break up after each job, it is impossible to trace the members, as a rule. They may not be heard of for months, and then they may appear in a distant part of the country."

TABLE CRICKET.

Novel Game as Pingpong's Rival in London.

Lawn tennis having gone indoors for the winter, its older brother, cricket, does not propose to be left out in the cold to await the return of summer. Pingpong is to be matched by table cricket, which is expected to soon have as many devotees as the other young game, says the Chicago Tribune. W. C. Grace, the famous player, has been interested in the new game by A. Westraud, the cricket lover. A demonstration was given at a public hall in London recently and the thing pronounced a success.

The bat is a diminutive affair, as are also the wickets. The chief feature of the game, however, is the "bowler," which is an ingenious arrangement of springs which pitches the ball at the wicket in a most baffling way. After a little practice even a novice at the game makes a first class bowler. The real skill is demanded on the part of the batsman. He has a small bat about an inch and a half long, with which he must guard his wicket. The field is arranged with pockets for catching on the batter, and the whole plan is arranged to conform closely to cricket. The game has already become popular in London and is likely to spread to America.

POWERFUL EXPLOSIVE.

Roumanian Experts Claim It Will Pierce Thickest Armor.

"Galazit" is the name of an extraordinarily powerful explosive with which the Austrian government is experimenting, says a Vienna dispatch to the Chicago News. The explosive is the discovery of two Roumanians of Galatz, an engineer named Demetriade and a chemist named Jones. In the course of the experiments a cartridge exploded in a barrel of water threw the spray twenty feet high; another exploded in the stump of an old tree buried several feet underground blew the stump to splinters and tore a great hole in the earth.

Great results in the way of shattering iron were obtained by the inventors, and the government experts regard the new explosive as boding ill to all existing naval and military defensive materials. It is claimed that galazit can be transported without risk and produced at a low cost.

BURIED BY WOMEN.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—A ceremony unique among funeral services was performed at Rosehill when the body of a woman was laid to rest by a party of her women friends. It was the funeral of Mrs. Eliza Manahan, aged 90, daughter of Captain Oliver of the Continental army. Following her last wish, she was buried by her fellow members of the D. A. R.

ARSENIC IN STOMACH.

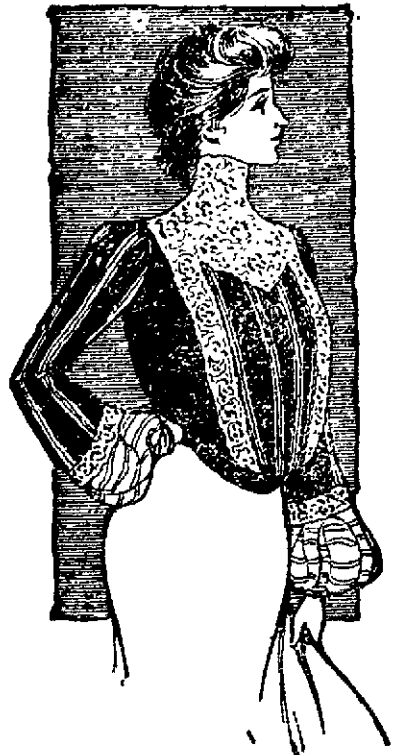

St. Louis, Dec. 6.—Arsenic has been discovered in the stomach of Mrs. Kate Smith one of the six persons closely related to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fischer, who have died within a year. All but one, a baby, were insured and an investigation of the deaths has been started by the lodge in which Mrs. Smith was insured for $2,000. The Fishers and the physician declare all the deaths were from natural causes.

FASHION NOTES.

Ridiculous Millinery—Lace Blouses Over Pale Colored.

Most of this year's millinery is pretty, but there is some that verges on the ridiculous—for instance, the so called picture hats when they have exaggerated streamers hanging down the back, like widows' weeds. That is the worst of such a mode; it soon degenerates into a caricature. Lace blouses are all the rage, and they are made over the palest of satin linings, often these lace blouses being delicately jeweled in spray effects. One of the prettiest color combinations is pale pink covered with yellow lace and fastening with little rhinestone buttons.

Nowadays transparent yokes are giving way to high lace and chiffon jabots. Frenchwomen are all wearing collars again; consequently all the smart blouses and dresses no longer show the collarless effect.

The clever woman always keeps by her two smart blouse patterns, and she can then, with the aid of a seamstress, evolve separate waists from her old gowns.

The pretty blouse shown is of louisine silk and fine lace.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

EVENING GOWNS.

They Are Distinguished by Lightness of Texture.

There is a delusive simplicity about some of the newest and most elegant evening gowns, delusive because the simple effect is really most difficult to achieve successfully and demands a fairylike lightness and delicacy of touch on the part of the worker whose task it is to manipulate the dainty gauze chiffon and crepe de chine, for diaphanous fabrics are more fashionable than ever.

The revival of early Victorian fashions with respect to bodices is very noticeable. On most of the new evening gowns the length and slope of the shoulders are emphasized even in the high necked demitelles, which are more fashionable than decollete gowns for all occasions save balls. This is a very sensible fashion in cold weather, for even transparent chiffon and lace yokes provide some sort of protection for the lungs and throat and, if well managed, are quite as becoming as the decollete bodices—in fact, far more so to those women who have not perfect necks.

The crepe de chine gown in the illustration is made with a yoke and double collar effect of lace. The sleeves are puffed into deep lace cuffs, and the entire gown is tucked perpetually.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

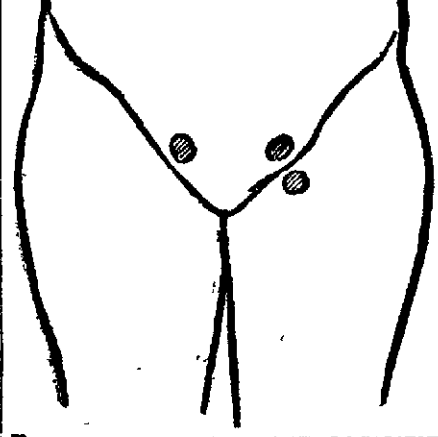

Nickel Against Aluminum. Yachting rumors in Great Britain say that in the building of the hull of Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock III, aluminum will be used freely. On the other hand, it is believed on this side of the Atlantic that nickel steel will be the material for the body of the new defender of the America's cup. Yachtsmen all over the world will watch with keen interest the test of the relative value of the two metals.

GRANVILLE.

Douglass Woodard's House Burned on Saturday—Fortnightly Club—Literary Society Meeting.

Granville, O., Dec. 6.—Shortly before two o'clock this morning our citizens were aroused from their peaceful slumbers by the loud and continuous ringing of the fire bell. In an incredibly short time many people were on the street, hurrying to the scene of the fire, which had been located in the house belonging to Douglass Woodward, just in the rear of the "Lyndon Flats," occupied by the family of Daniel Johnson. The fire was discovered by two students between one and two o'clock, as they were passing the house on their way home after having spent the evening with friends. They kicked the door of the house in only to find the interior of the building in flames.

They sounded the alarm, but it was fully half an hour after the fire was first discovered that the fire bell was rung. The fire department quickly responded and did all in their power to save the house, but without avail, and the building and all its contents burned to the ground. The loss will probably amount to six or eight hundred dollars, on which there is an insurance of $600. There was no one at home when the fire broke out, Mr.
Johnson being at Hebron and his family being at the home of his brother, Charles Johnson. It is supposed that Mrs. Johnson before leaving home had hung some clothes on a line before the kitchen fire, and that they had ignited the flames being communicated to the woodwork.

The Episcopalian Literary Society of Shepardson College held a closed meeting in the gymnasium on Friday evening.

Miss Margaret Wilson of Cincinnati who has been visiting friends here for the past week, returned home Friday, after having had a delightful visit.

At the last meeting of the Fortnightly club Mrs. Cook was the charming hostess. The guests of the club were Mesdames Leonard, George Harford,
Thomas and Miss Inglis. Roll call was responded to by quotations from Ruskin. A very interesting and effective character sketch of Henry VIII.
was given by Miss Jones, in a talk on the "Royal Bluebeard and His Court."
"The Haunts of Rob Roy" was the subject of the paper read by Mrs. Wright.
This Scottish nobleman, whose singular adventures entitle him to be considered the Robin Hood of Scotland, has been immortalized by Sir Walter Scott, in his celebrated novel of Rob Roy. The program was concluded by the two papers on different views of London life. Miss Owen taking the view of the "Lower Million," while Miss Carpenter gave a pen picture of the social life of the "Upper Ten." The club will meet with Mrs. Frank Robinson on Tuesday evening, Dec. 9.

The following members of the football team have been granted permission to wear the "D." Messrs. Jones,

EAST VS. WEST CHAMPIONSHIP.

While no comparison of the relative strength of Eastern and Western varsity teams can be made for 1902, an interesting game will be played today at Chicago by which a line can be drawn on the respective strength of two of the most prominent preparatory schools. The Brooklyn Polytechnic Preparatory school journeyed to Chicago and are to play the Hyde Park High School eleven the champions of the west in their class. The Hyde Park boys have been coached for some days by Stagg, the famous coach of the University of Chicago.
Everts Wrenn will umpire the game and Walter McCormack will referee.

a unanimous choice. De Witt has played on the varsity team for three years. Last year he played tackle and this year guard on the team. He is a graduate of Lawrenceville, where he captained the football team in his
